

What Happened this Week in History”

Submitted by Linda Huth; Sponsored by: The Broadwater County Historical Society and the Cotter Foundation

October 15

1903

“Local News”

Ben Townsley and family are now located in Townsend, residing in one of the Kivlahan houses on Spruce Street. His girls are attending school in Townsend. Mr. Townsley seems to be elated over the change of residence, as he can now take an occasional day's rest which was hard to do on the ranch.

Joe Parker is engaged in putting on the roof at the new Star office.

The iron work for the front of the Star Office arrived the fore part of this week and the way it was placed in position to receive the brick and plate glass, was not slow. In fact, the brick work on the new Star Office is complete at the present time.

Broadwater county has the distinction of having among her citizens one of the finest Bronco riders in the State of Montana. In fact there was no one at the State Fair who doubted the ability of Jake Ross of Toston to hold the championship of this state as chief among bronco busters.

1925

“Local News”

Another prize band of lambs have been reported. Emil Kieckbusch's band of spring lambs averaged 88 $\frac{3}{4}$ lbs. Any more that beats that? Let's hear from you.

Mrs. F. McCormick accompanied her daughter, May, to Helena Saturday.

Mrs. Ray Ward motored to Helena Saturday and was accompanied home by Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ward, who are spending a few days in Townsend with their son, Ray, and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. C.B. Fairchild motored to the capital city on Saturday. They were accompanied by Mrs. W.C Whaley.

Don't forget the big dance at Canton, October 24th. Given by the Woman's Club.

Harry Ragen spent the week end in Townsend with home folk.

All the latest dance hits played by the Merry Makers at the Halloween dance in Canton, October 24th.

1970

“Charlene Haines Receives Honor”

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Adams have received word that their oldest daughter, Mrs. Charles (Charleen) Haines, has been selected to appear in the 1970 edition of Outstanding Young Women of America.

Mrs. Haines has been chosen for the awards publication on the basis of her community and civic achievements and she is now in competition for Oregon's Outstanding Young Woman of the Year award. Mrs. Haines is third grade teacher in the Enterprise, Ore., school system. She is presently secretary of the Wallowa County Young Women's Club, a branch of the Oregon Federated Women's Club and is a church school teacher in the Enterprise Community Congregational Church. The past three years she has been city co-chairman of the annual Cancer Crusade drive.

Guidelines for selections as an Outstanding Young Woman include unselfish service to others, charitable activities, community and civic and professional recognition.

"Radersburg News"

Terry Harris is the proud owner of a 14' trailer camper. Sam Harris and Terry plan on using it for hunting this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. John Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beyers were visiting in Three Forks Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Bruce of Whitehall visited Mrs. Bud Harris and family Sunday.

Rudy Puttin is back working in Yellowstone Park. He spent the week end at his home here.

Miss Connie Roberts was a Sunday guest of Miss Byrl Beyers in Toston. That evening the girls attended the show in Townsend.